

Official and Unofficial Recruiting Visit Policy
For Prospective Student-Athlete

A recruiting visit provides an important experience in the decision making process. The Union College Department of Athletics abides by NCAA recruiting rules and has college policies regarding conduct during recruiting visits.

All prospective student-athletes must abide by the following:

- Prospective must let their Student Host know their whereabouts at all times during their visit.
- Prospective will go over the academic and recreational activities for visit with the Head Coach and Student-Host upon arrival.
- New York's drinking age is 21, the prospective is aware that it is illegal to drink alcohol while on a recruiting visit if they are under 21.
- Prospective understands that they are only allowed to attend sanctioned college events.
- Drugs are illegal, if a prospective goes to a place where there are drugs, they should leave immediately.
- Prospective will also abide by the Union College Student Conduct Code while visiting campus.
- A Prospective student-athlete who violates NCAA or Union College recruiting policies may no longer be considered for recruitment.
